

1. What is your textbook's title? _____
2. Open to your textbook's Table of Contents (ToC). How many chapters in in your textbook? _____
3. Look at the outline of Chapter 1 in the ToC? How does the book breakdown the chapters?

4. What big question will you be able to answer by the end of Chapter 1? _____
5. Turn to the first page of Ch. 1, Lesson 1. How is this page intended to help you?
6. Turn back one page, you should see a "Getting Started" section. How is this intended to help you?
7. On this page, you should see 3 vocabulary words. List the words below.

8. What do you notice about the box to the right of the section with the high-lighted vocabulary terms?
9. About halfway down the page, you should see a section called Vocabulary Skill. How is this section intended to help you?
10. Turn back to the first page of Ch. 1. How is "My Planet Diary" intended to help you?
11. Flip through the rest of the pages in Ch. 1? Write down 3 things you notice about your textbook.
12. Turn to your ToC, find the page number for "Science Skills Practice and Support" (it is near the end of textbook). Turn to this page. Each of these pages is blue along the other edge. Flip through the pages and write down what you think will be most helpful to you.
13. After the "Science Skills Practice and Support" pages you have several "Appendix" pages. What do you see as Appendix A? _____
14. As you continue through the "Appendix" pages, you will reach the "Glossary." What is the first word in the glossary? _____ What is this word in Spanish? _____
15. Continue turning pages through the glossary until you reach the index.
What is the first word in the index? _____ On what page(s) can you find information on this topic? _____

